

Please do not overturn the New Jersey Do No Call law. Before enactment my telephone answering machine was full of unsolicited calls with constant interruptions made by these unsolicited callers during all hours of the day and evening. Which I considered an invasion of my privacy and disruption of my life. I now have more peace of mind knowing that the ring of my phone is from a party that I actually know or may want to speak to.